Sustainability at Jokey covers the areas of ecology, economy and social matters. We are working continuously to improve the resource efficiency of our production processes. We're a future-focussed partner for our customers and suppliers and a reliable, attractive employer for our employees.

Management

Continuity guaranteed.

Herbert Kemmerich (CEO) and Ralf Kemmerich (COO) are the second and third generations heading up the family company. They are supported by Peter Dörmbach (CFO) and Christof Kölschbach (CSO), both employees for many years who have made their way up to management.
